

Upcoming Adult Education Classes Taught by Rabbi Barnett

Starting on Sunday, Dec. 11, 2022

Classes will be taught in person at the Temple on continuing Sundays unless otherwise noted.

1. 9:30 a.m.– 10:15 a.m.

Beginning Hebrew Reading – This is an opportunity, which has been requested by some people, which assumes no previous Hebrew reading at all, features a simple but not simplistic 25-page curriculum, and within 3 short months will have you reading at the pre-Bar/Bat mitzvah level. A $25.00 donation to the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund will be requested for covering production costs and a royalty payment to the author of this ground-breaking, brilliant curriculum – imo, the best in the world!!!!!!

2. 10:30 a.m. – 11:15 a.m.

Jewish Literacy and Culture – Based upon the idea of modern scholarship that there are a certain number of informational items necessary for functional and cultural literacy in general society, Joseph Telushkin put together a comprehensive curriculum for an application of this approach to the Jewish world. Individual class sessions will be distinct, so although encouraged, attendance at each and every session is not mandatory. Particular topics will be selected in part by the participants involved, depending on your own individual interests within very broad categories from our greater tradition. Just bring yourself and enjoy the learning and refresher process!!
